in their extermination of American imperialists by contributions from the people for the purchase of planes and guns. With the extermination of American imperialists, Chinese Communists will be able to live peaceful lives.

3. According to a directive issued by the Hong Kong branch of the Chinese Communist South China Bureau, on the 1 August celebrations of Army Day in Canton, Communists were to carry out an anti-America and "destruction of Taiwan" program, review the local militia unit, and stage a parade. YEH Chiem-ying, FANG Fang, KU Ta-ts'un, LO Jung-yuan (), and WANG Tsung-huai () were to review the militia and the parade. HUNG Hunch-chih was appointed commander of the militia. On this occasion, 128 fighting heroes of the Central and South China area and 280 men with good service records were to be honored, and 500 men were to be decorated with the MAO Tse-tung medal. YEH Chiem-ying, FANG Chiang (), and LIANG Kuang were to be decorated with Fighting

- 4. In about July the Communists placed a wooden box at the sentry post at Shench use on the border between China and Kowloon and posted a sign by it which read:
 "Contribute your share for the purchase of war planes and artillery pieces."
 The sentry confiscates all money including U. S. currency, Hong Kong currency, gold, and silver which travellers carry in their pockets and bags, and throws
- 5. On 1 August, to prevent anti-Communists from crossing the border at Shench wan, the Communists dispatched two battalions of the 15 Army Group, 4 Field Army, to Shench wan. Those found sneaking across the border without permits are to be shot, and those with permits are to be searched closely.
